Winterthur Portfolio

A Journal of American Material Culture

Winterthur Portfolio is not a museum bulletin. It is not an art and antiques magazine. Nor is it a publication just for curators and preservationists.

Winterthur Portfolio is a unique scholarly journal devoted to increasing our knowledge of how people of the American past lived, through an examination of the material things those people lived with. Such essays as

Style as Evidence, by Jules David Prown

The Shaw Memorial by Augustus Saint-Gaudens: A History Painting in Bronze, by Lois Goldreich Marcus

Investigating Identity and Expression in American Folk Art, by Simon J. Bronner

Urban Vernacular Architecture in Nineteenth-Century Baltimore, by Mary Ellen Hayward suggest that the documents we need to understand the past sometimes have three dimensions. The goal of WP is to interpret those documents.

Edited by Ian M. G. Quimby and Catherine E. Hutchins of the Henry Francis du Pont Winterthur Museum.

Published triannually. One-year subscriptions: Institutions $40, Individuals $25, Students $20. Visa and Master Card accepted. Order from The University of Chicago Press, 11030 S. Langley Ave., Chicago, IL 60628.
